The Shelton Baseball Boosters would like to extend our thanks to the coaches, players, and parents for helping promote and support Shelton Baseball. Working together we are able to provide our boys with many "extra benefits" and an outstanding baseball program. We also want to thank our sponsors for purchasing advertising in our program. A special thanks goes to Coach Bobby Sprowl for all his time and effort working with our boys.

2006-2007

Head Coach Bobby Sprowl

Former major league pitcher Bobby Sprowl is in his sixteenth year as head coach of the Shelton State Buccaneers after spending five years as pitching coach at the University of Alabama. The Bucs made eleven consecutive trips to the state tournament since his return.

Sprowl coached Shelton from 1986 until 1989 and compiled a 129-55 record in four seasons. Under his guidance, Shelton made consecutive trips to the Alabama Junior College State Tournament, finishing runner-up twice.

Coach Sprowl enjoyed a fine college career at the University of Alabama, recognized as a second team All-American and consensus All-SEC in 1977. His 11.5 strikeouts per nine innings led the NCAA in 1977. He was recently honored by being named to the Crimson's Tide All-Century Team.

After his college career at Alabama, Sprowl enjoyed an eight year professional baseball career with the Boston Red Sox and the Houston Astros. Sprowl, who was the number two pick of the Boston Red Sox in June 1977 free agent draft, was a member of the 1978 team that lost a one-game American League Eastern Division playoff to the New York Yankees on Bucky Dent's famous three-run homer over the Green Monster at Fenway Park. On June 13, 1979, Bobby was traded to the Houston Astros. While a member of the Astros, Sprowl played on two Western Division Championship teams (1980 and 1981).

Sprowl has a 25-year old son, Jon Mark. Bobby is married to the former Teresa Gibson, and they have two children, Trevor (14) and Graceson (10).

Assistant Coach Peter Khoury

Peter Khoury is in his 5th year at SSCC. He was drafted out of high school in the 24th round by the Boston Red Sox. He opted instead to play college baseball at Clemson University in South Carolina. During his university career, he played in two College World Series. After college he was drafted by the New York Yankees organization (1978-1982) until an injury ended his professional playing career. During his off-seasons, Khoury gained coaching experience at the University of Alabama as an assistant baseball coach under Hayden Riley. Since then he has served in various coaching capacities at Durfee High School in Fall River, Massachusetts, the American School of Madrid, Spain, and the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth. Khoury once trained and competed in the Spanish National Wrestling Team, finished 2nd in the Massachusetts State Handball Tournament, and 3rd in the New England Handball Open. In 2001 Khoury was elected to the Durfee High School Hall of Fame, Fall River, Massachusetts.

Assistant Coach Brett Kimbrel

Brett Kimbrel returns to Shelton for his third season with the Bucs. His past coaching stops include batting coach/instructor for the University of Alabama, Chipola Junior College in Marianna, Florida, Tuscaloosa Academy, and Holt High School in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He has coached several professional players, most notably Tyke Redman, who was with the Pittsburgh Pirates and was recently traded to the New York Mets. Kimbrel's responsibilities at Shelton include Hitting instruction and working with infielders. Kimbrel is married to the former Denise Hubbard. They have two sons Brett (20) and Blake (17).
